

Acacia oxydecrus - Spike Wattle

Availability: 12

Price: $3.50

Short Description

Prickly shrub 3m x 2m

Full sun

Sandy soil

Flowers Winter - Spring

Low maintenance

Bird refuge (habitat)

Wildplant Community

Sydney sandstone woodlands, dry sclerophyll forest, or heathland.

Description

Height: Prickly, dense shrub 1-3 m high by 2 m across, small trees are also known

Aspect: Full sun

Soil: Reasonably well drained positions in most soils

Flowers: Flowers in cream spikes which occur in winter and spring

Tips: Suitable for areas of low maintenance. Excellent hedge plant forming a barrier. Small bird habitat

Wildplant Community

Sydney sandstone woodlands, dry sclerophyll forest, or heathland.

Specification

Attracts beneficial insects

Attracts native bees
Attracts birds
Attracts small birds
Small Mammals
Small mammal habitat	